Kristianne, Marc & Craig - WA, USA
22 October 2004

Our experience here was superb! The apartment offers a charming, comfortable and quiet home- and it's in Paris! We loved all the extra touches you provide- the information guide, food supplies and excellent novels. We especially enjoyed dinner at 'Chez Ginette'- thanks for the recommendation. The rain did not in any way interfere with our time in Paris. We hope to return soon.

Lori & Alex - Bedoin, France
22 February 2004

Thanks so much for going out of your way to make sure we were okay. We really enjoyed walking along rue Lepic and Sacré-Coeur (great views). We've never stayed in this arrondissement before and we enjoyed it. Thanks for all your help.

If you are ever down south, do look us up.

Clare, Sarah & Kate - London, UK
21 November 2004

We have had a fabulous time and really taken the opportunity to explore Paris properly since we're up with the larks with a baby. The flat is lovely- and it's especially good to find so many small touches- store cupboard essentials, electric adapters and all these tips- great... Thank you so much for providing such a great place to stay.

The Lee Family - NY, USA
27 December 2004

We greatly enjoyed the serenity and convenience of the apartment. Everything was top-notch. A small table for meals would add to the already superlative level of accommodation. Thank you very much.

John & Sheri - Toronto, Canada
8 January 2005

Sheri & I had a great time. Paris is wonderful. We hope when we get to Switzerland & Italy that we can find a great apartment like yours. Things are wonderful here. Thank you so much. We are having a great honeymoon. If you are ever in Toronto, Ontario, look us up.

Lauren & Paul - London, UK
15 February 2005

A beautiful apartment in a wonderful location- it was the first time we'd stayed in an apartment for a city break and we'll definitely do it again! We would recommend the restaurant 'A La Pomponette' to other guests- fantastic French food in a typically Parisian setting...Thanks for your help and great service.

Rose Marie, Fernando, Debora & Arcangela - Brazil
19 March 2005

Thank you very much for your apartment. It is comfortable, well located and enough for 4 people. The neighbourhood is safe to walk during the night too. We recommend the restaurant in the first quarter of rue Lepic on the left ('... of Artists'). We hope to have an opportunity to get your help again in another trip. If you decide to go to Brazil, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Kayla, Nigel, Tim, Emma - UK
13 April 2005

For some of us, it was our first visit to Paris. For some it was the first in a long time. But for one of us, this was a homecoming. For us all, the city has been a revelation, a reverie and a damn good time. Walk in the sunshine as much as you can just to get the feel, the smell and the sound of the city. Eat at La Pomponette - good food, smokey atmosphere - not sure about the name! Do all those tourist things and then get lost in Marais and have falafel in Voges Park. You can never get bored or starve if you are willing to experiment and to get lost. Wonderful city. Fabulous flat (other than the work men who start at 9am!).

Good luck to the pigeon and her baby!!

Jolene & Henry - VA, USA
5 May 2005

Thanks for much for helping to make our visit to Paris so enjoyable-The apartment is great & what a treat to share with the little pigeon babies- Hoping to come back & visit Paris and you again.

Glenn & John - UK
22 May 2005

We are not strangers to Paris but it was wonderful to have so much space to enjoy after years of putting up with small hotel rooms. A la Pomponette has some English speaking staff but the food is not geared to timid tastes. We loved it though. Also, Charlot near Place de Clichy metro is famous for excellent shellfish. Rue Lepic is excellent for food essentials.

Ross & Asuncion Stanton - Victoria, Australia
6 June 2005

Thank you for your wonderful apartment. It made our stay in Paris perfect!

Jo & Roger Piercing & children - Cookham Dean, UK
16 June 2005

On the recommendation of our close friend, Mohini and Clive, we booked this apartment for a long weekend in Paris! And what a perfect apartment it is! So clean and comfortable. A great first experience, for the children, in Paris. We could do this all over again! Thanks.

Jacky - UK
30 June 2005

Home from home- all the comforts of Islington in Pigalle. My stay was brief but enjoyable.

The McErleans - Belfast, Ireland
29 August 2005

We have had a marvellous time – we love this flat and Montmartre and we will certainly be visiting again. Anna (5 ½) particularly recommends the playground in the Tuilleries, the Jardin de Luxembourg, and the Champs de Mars, the lovely hot chocolate at the Deux Moulins Café.

Andrew & Tanya - Aberdeen, Scotland
24 September 2005

We have had a great time here! The flat is great and very quiet at all times of the day. Your guide to where to eat was very helpful and the service in these was superb. We had not been to Paris before and have found it a wonderful city and will come back again. We can recommend the dinner cruise at Marina de Bercy (01 43 43 40 30 to book) for a nice evening out. Thank you again.

Anne & Tony - UK
3 October 2005

Had a lovely weekend, very comfortable flat, plenty of room. Hope to come again soon.

Michael & Beny - UK
11 October 2005

Dear Rosie, we've had a wonderful stay in Paris. The flat is brilliant, its space, comfort, and convenience really helped to make our visit memorable. Our best regards.

Jeremie & Maré - South Africa
29 October 2005

Dear Gail, thanks for all your patience and help!

Dear Rosie, thank you very much for the stay in your lovely apartment, we really enjoyed! Also, your directory of how to live and see Montmartre was excellent. We enjoyed all the small bars, brasseries, and other places were great – hilltop town in Paris!

Liane & Casey - Santa Cruz, CA, USA
28 December 2005

We really enjoyed our stay here over Christmas – it even snowed a couple of days later! The walk up to Sacré Coeur is well worth doing as was seeing all the great Christmas windows at the grand magasins. Thanks!

P.S. Marzena was really helpful! Also great idea to leave books to read, I left a couple for mystery fans.

Gerard & Margaret - Newcastle, UK
17 January 2006

Dear Gail, the perfect place to be situated for a short break. I'll certainly recommend it to friends. Thanks again.

Isabel, Juhai, Rowan & Stefan - London, UK
14 February 2006

At last a solution to our long-running search for a flat in Paris in a convenient location, comfortable, and spacious enough to share with two energetic boys – a fantastic place to stay without forgoing the comforts of home.

We are new to this district, but sold on its attractions, proximity to the grand magasins, etc. Pity about the exceptionally unfriendly shopkeepers, but that's outside your control!

Will certainly return...merci beaucoup!

Sandra, Jim & Lottie - England, UK
18 February 2006

To Rosie and Gail, I liked the apartment. I liked the breakfast bar but it was too high for me! I would not watch the T.V. because it was all in French. In quick, the food was nice and some of the younger people in there could speak English. The bed was really nice and I liked all the mirrors because I like to look at me in it. The Eiffel Tower was great. –Lottie

We had a great time here in Paris and loved the apartment, it was so nice and quiet, as you can see, my daughter had to put her comments. Thanks!

Rosalind, Anthony & Florence - Cambridge, UK
6 March 2006

Very impressed with the flat; usually stay in the Marais but love this area, very Parisian, especially food, flowers, etc. Pomponette was a great success (bone marrow, food of the gods!) and Wepler for plateau de fruit de mer. All in an oasis with stylish tranquil charm.

The Eddys - Oxford, UK
9 March 2006

Fantastic apartment! Ideal for a family with two young children. The boys and parents really enjoyed the stay.

The Stirlings - Scotland
2 April 2006

We very much enjoyed our stay in the apartment. Ideal location and good amenities. Exactly what is needed. A perfect base to explore the city. We would recommend it to anyone coming to Paris.

The Homes - UK
10 April 2006

A great stay in the heart of Paris. Very comfortable and equipped. An ideal location to explore Paris – we will definitely be back!

Heather & John - Australia
7 May 2006

We really enjoyed the flat and loved all the little extras to make us feel at home. The area was great and enjoyed feeling like a local shopping in rue Lepic and eating lovely French food. We found the people friendly and our first trip to Paris was amazing. Hope to be back!

Barbara, Geraldine & Neda - Ireland & London
12 May 2006

Now that we've discovered apartment living, no more pokey hotel rooms! Everything was perfect! We'll be back and will tell our friends.

My first stay in Paris was fantastic! The apartment was great and I love the courtyard. We saw all the sights including the Eiffel Tower at night which was breathtaking and we went up the Arc de Triomphe and could see the whole of Paris, which was amazing. I'll never forget the brilliant time I had. Thanks for everything.

The Ceskas - Georgia, USA
26 May 2006

Oui, très bien! So quiet – nice after long busy days. Thanks so!

The Hollands - UK
28 May 2006

We've had a great time; it certainly makes life easier to stay in an apartment with children. Many thanks.

The Murphys - Ireland
4 April 2006

We really enjoyed our stay in the apartment, great base, well located, comfortable, and very well equipped. Ideal for families. We'll definitely be recommending it to anyone coming to Paris.

The Lonsbroughs - Toronto, Canada
12 June 2006

Thanks Gail for a wonderful visit. The apartment was fabulous. The location perfect. We bought food at Monoprix and then later found rue Lepic for the smaller grocery stores. Purchased seafood at the store near the top and many pain au chocolats. As well, felt like a local even if it was only for a moment but then perhaps that's what we're looking for. The apartment was spacious, perfect for a couple with two young boys. Hope to be back soon! Au revoir.

Maya & Jenny - CA, USA
16 June 2006

Dear Gail, we had an amazing time here at Contemporary Chic! The neighbourhood was a lot of fun and we explored quite a bit. Paris is beautiful in June and this place makes it even more so. We loved rue Lepic and all of your other suggested destinations. We can't wait to get to Romantic Montmartre for the remainder of our stay.

Georgina - UK
22 July 2006

To Gail, thank you for being so welcoming and helpful. The apartment was lovely but parking is a nightmare! Paris is a lovely city and is very romantic, but next time I come here it will be without the children. Thank you again.

Hilary, Sean & Anne - UK
14 August 2006

Our second visit to Contemporary Chic, and once again we've had a marvellous trip (despite the rain!). We loved shopping around Abbesses and Sacre Coeur (good shops in rue Yvonne le Tac) and Montmartre Cemetery is well worth a visit. Disappointed that l'Etoile d'Or was closed for the holidays – we've heard a lot about this shop! Still, hopefully we'll be back in Paris, and Montmartre, before too long.

Jenny Jones and Judith Weird Canberra – Australia
31 August 2006

Have visited Paris before but this is the first time we have stayed in a private apartment – there are lots of advantages! Location is great – very convenient to the excellent metro, on the whole it is surprisingly quiet and work. It's a great flat in a super location and we have really enjoyed ourselves.

Bernie and Sue – UK
2 September 2006

What a fantastic find! We loved the apartment, location and ease of booking, etc. We have a lot more exploring in Paris to do – we will definitely be back!

Emma and Henry – UK
September 2006

Thanks for a lovely apartment. We had great fun and will most definitely return.

Pierre and Muriel – Toronto, Canada
26 September 2006

This is our second time in one of Gail's apartments (the first was Rooftop Vista, the well named in May) and it will not be the last. The pleasure of being "at home" in Paris is irresistible. One piece of advice: if you bring your laptop, use the ironing board (it lowers to the right position) as a desk: perfect! (and you can even make faces at yourself in the mirror). Try googling the owner, Rosie Millard, she will be known to visitors from the UK, but was a discovery for us. There is also an article by her in the folder left by Gail. Thank you, Gail. Another great stay in Paris!

Kyran & Melissa – OR, USA
September 2006

Gail, we had a great time. Very nice and spacious apartment. It was very easy to get to everything. If you stay here walk up Sacre Coeur, the view is wonderful of Paris. I would also suggest the l'Open Tour. You get to see a lot as the busses go all over and you can hop on and off. We had a great time. Thank you.

Bob, Elizabeth, Leah and Alexander– UK
28 October 2006

The flat was very clean, thanks to Nataliya. Great location, plenty of restaurants, good variation, plenty to induce a second visit. Coffee and wine on arrival was a very nice thought. Alexander says the air bed was very comfortable and recommends the sightseeing bus.

Carrie & Jackie –UK
16 November 2006

Fabulous few days – we've loved it! Thank you!

Rachel & Kate – Nottingham, England
24 November 2006

The flat is fabulous – the bath a real luxury. It is so quiet and an authentic way to experience Paris. Thank you! Lovely, lovely, lovely!

James, Finn and Aidan
November 2006

Had a great time – flat was very relaxing, area full of energy, lots of things to do. Would recommend corner bar if you like the Parisian punk scene and vegetarian restaurant near Abbesses area. Many thanks.

The Hancocks – UK
13 January 2007

Fantastic trip and lovely apartment! Our first trip to Paris with our young son and this apartment – size – location, etc, has made it easy. Thanks very much.

Rob & Jean – UK
January 2007

Many thanks for a great stay, the flat was perfect for my mum and I. The flat was great. I'd definitely recommend Chez Toinette, lovely authentic bistro. Give the Sacre Coeur a wide berth during busy times – loads of tourists Thanks again Nataliya for everything.

Sally – Notting Hill, London, UK
24 February 2007

We had a lovely time. It's a gorgeous apartment and really convenient to get around. We recommend 'l'Open Tour' bus if you are only here for a short stay. A big thank you to Gail and Preston for saving us when our purse was stolen – it helped us forget about our back luck! We will be back!

Dear Gail, thank you for a lovely place to stay in while I had my 10th birthday. It was lovely and quiet! I like the Eiffel Tower the best. Love from Kitty (Sally's daughter).

The Taylors – UK
16 April 2007

A great base for the Paris Marathon.

E & P Starr – UK
27 April 2007

Had a fabulous stay, found great local places to shop for food on rue Lepic! A romantic relaxing getaway. We shall return.

Tara & Seamus Murphy – Ireland
6 March 2007

Thanks Gail, once again we have really enjoyed our stay in Paris. The apartment is perfectly located for travelling around the city. As others have said, I would recommend the open bus tour/boat tour. We have managed to see a lot more on this trip and the kids have loved it. Jardin d'Acclimatation is great for kids, but go at weekend. In general local restaurants are good but Bistro Melrose, not suitable for kids and food not particularly good.

Caroline and Damian Horrigan – Australia/New Zealand
3 July 2007

Dear Gail, what a fantastic apartment – it sure beats staying in a tiny hotel. We have given the kitchen a thorough work out! We found Monoprix to be easier (lack of French language) and cheaper than rue Lepic! Please add Bistro L'Epicurien (86, rue Lepic) to your list of restaurants. The food was fantastic (foie gras with vanilla, superb duck confit...) La Basilic was ordinary (a worry when they present you with an English menu). Thanks too to Nataliya for showing us the ins and outs of the apartment! For those interested, go over the Butte to the north side away from Place du Tertre, it is gorgeous. We shall return.

Michael, Sheryl, Emily & Sarah Noble – Monroe, MI, USA
6 July 2007

Thank you so much. We very much enjoyed our stay in Paris – the first for most of us. Picking up good at the market and bringing it back to the apartment was terrific and my teenage girls especially enjoyed the patisserie. Best regards.

The Kola Family – South Africa
12 July 2007

Dear Gail, thank you very much. We enjoyed our stay immensely. Above all, you accommodated for the 'earlier' and 'late' stay. Best wishes.

Jill, Pete & Susie – UK
2 August 2007

Dear Gail, a very enjoyable stay, weather perfect, Paris was beautiful. Our teenage daughter thought it highly amusing that we'd brought her to the "red light" district! A great location, very safe to walk around at night, especially up rue Lepic and along the rue des Abbesses. Bed very comfy and air mattress, too!

Celine, Michael, Aisling & Terry – FL, USA
9 August 2007

The flat was comfortable and a great location from the metro and Montmartre. Thanks for your help with everything.

Collette & Serbo- UK
31 August 2007

Dear Gail, what an absolute joy staying in the apartment here in Paris. Clean, comfortable and so close to everything. We've had 5 gorgeous sunny days and are leaving slightly more overweight than when we arrived – we highly recommend the Bistro l'Epicurean – very yummy. Thank you.

Dave & Jayne Ford – West Vancouver, BC, Canada
7 September 2007

Gail, it's been wonderful exploring Paris, Giverny, Versailles etc and when we return to our cosy apartment, being able to take off our shoes and put our feet up in comfort. The location is great for metro and buses. Thanks for thinking of just about everything a traveller needs. Nearby restaurants we tried were le Moulin de la Galette and La Cloche d'Or, and they were both great!! Best wishes.

Lesa & Mike Harvey – Goodwood, Ontario, Canada
14 September 2007

Thanks so much for a great stay. The apartment is exquisite – "shabby chic" with all the comforts of home. I can't imagine doing Paris any other way – to come home after a day of wandering the 9th and 18th to a home cooked meal and a bottle of wine! The next time we're in Paris, we'll do the apartment thing! Merci beaucoup de Canada.

Geoff, Lynell & Nicola – Brisbane, Australia
29 September 2007

Dear Gail and helpers, we have thoroughly enjoyed our stay at 14, rue de Bruxelles. It is very conveniently located for shops, metro, etc. The apartment has everything we needed (although the sofa bed squeaks a lot when slept on by a 10 year old). Being able to come back to the apartment and cook a meal (from Monoprix or local shops) was great. Un Zebra à Montmartre restaurant was great with authentic French food at good prices. Merci beaucoup.

The McAuley Family – South Australia
7 October 2007

Thank you Gail for a wonderful stay in a quiet apartment. The apartment has great location close to the metro and Monoprix. We also recommend L'Open Tour bus we bought a two day ticket and used it to see the sights and to get around the city (as an alternative to using the metro). Having Internet and phone access was also very useful. Our only regret is that our short stay wasn't long enough to properly see Paris. Can't wait to return one day.

The Hill Family – New Zealand
10 October 2007

Très chic! Lovely apartment. Thank you, we feel lucky to have found it and it has contributed to us having a great experience in Paris. This is the 5th successive apartment we have rented in Europe on this trip and to have arrived and found it so complete with a few toiletries etc was helpful, you do a great job. Thanks Gail, we hope we will see you again.

Peter & Kate – London
14 November 2007

Always forget how compact the centre of Paris is. This location is superb. 45 minutes walk to the Louvre, etc. ½ hour wander up to Sacre Coeur. Rue Lepic is good for food shops and bars but we also enjoyed turning right and going down the hill for equally good restaurants. Musée Gustave Moreau and Musée de la View Romantique, not huge but set pieces and quirky.

The Knechts & Slaights – USA
16 March 2008

Thank you for the wonderful time in Paris. The apartment was perfect. We really enjoyed the beautiful city and also just relaxing with a nice bottle of wine (in this cute place!). Will tell our friends and family. Much thanks!

Alison, Dan & Annabel – UK
30 March 2008

Had a great stay in the flat. Thank you!

The Mott Family – Germany
7 April 2008

We enjoyed our time here. It is better than a hotel.

The Cooper Family – Australia
23 April 2008

Thank you so much for a lovely apartment here in Paris! We have been travelling through Europe and your apartment was by far the most equipped and generous. Hopefully we will return again some day. Kind regards.

Steve & Jean – England
28 April 2008

Great apartment, excellent location for first time in Paris. Had a wonderful time. Would recommend the flat to our friends and would recommend 'Open Tour Buses' for all visitors. Thank you Gail and Preston.

Ian & Kelly – London
5 May 2008

Very pleasant, good value flat in an excellent location (don't be afraid to explore Montmartre!). Carpe Diem restaurant a very safe bet, good Internet cafés within inches and Gail and Preston very helpful. Lovely weekend had!

Heather & John – Sydney, Australia
2 June 2008

Once again, thanks for a very comfortable stay. As before, it felt like home. We had a great two weeks and wish we could come back again sometime. Still love rue Lepic and all the little shops. The corner bar was very welcoming everyday and as usual and weather too much!

Marian & PJ – Ireland
3 June 2008

Many thanks for a most enjoyable stay; we had a most enjoyable stay. Many thanks for your help in finding the BHV store – what a find beside Hotel de Ville. Hope to be back soon. Thanks for a great stay.

The Jensens – Manitoba, Canada
22 June 2008

Enjoyed a wonderful stay in well situated setting. Merci bien!

Jane – Melbourne, Australia
28 July 2008

Dear Gail, thanks for your warm welcome and the pleasure of staying at Contemporary Chic. A wonderful base for seeing the delights of Paris and especially of Montmartre. PerfectlyParis was recommended to us by friends in Australia and we will be passing on the same recommendation!

Chris & Jeanne Allen – Melbourne, Australia
30 August 2008

What a wonderful city Paris is, and even more wonderful when you can come "home" to Contemporary Chic, kick off the shoes and open a bottle of wine and recall the day's events. We only had 4 nights, but for us what made the time here even more memorable. Thank you Gail for the regular e-mails to Australia over many months and for your assistance with gluten free food. You made it very easy for us. Thanks to Preston for the warm welcome. Would recommend the Open Tour – hop on – hop off buses, they make travelling around so enjoyable. This is our first time in Paris, but hopefully not our last. Contemporary Chic was recommended by friends and Gail; you've just made another one! Best wishes.

The Johnsons – Tasmania, Australia
11 September 2008

Dear Gail and Preston,

Contemporary Chic is an absolute gem! It really does ooze the character of Paris! Three days in Paris is not long enough and we are all absolutely exhausted from walking to most of the main sights. Our teenage son and daughter haven't walked that much ever! It has been said before, to have such a quiet place to come home to sleep was such a bonus. Will definitely be recommending to all our friends in Tassie!

Russ & Nettie Doyle, Elton Doyle & Marie Jaksie – Australia
16 October 2008

Dear Preston and Gail,

Your apartment is absolutely fabulous – so close to all the main attractions – thank you both we all had a great time. So grateful to come home after a day of walking. We've all had the best French experience.

Will definitely recommend you to any of our friends wanting to see beautiful France. Thank you.

Maria Bergtsson – Germany
6 November 2008

Contemporary Chic is really nice, quiet and comfortable we had a great time here. We are very much looking forward to Enchanting St. Georges. Thanks you for all the help.

Lana, Lisa & Jodie – Ireland
10 November 2008

The apartment is wonderful; we had a great stay here. It was very easy to get around to all the main attractions via Metro. Would recommend the trip on the Batobus and a visit to the Georges Pompidou Centre. Would also recommend a visit to Restaurant Aubergine on rue des Dames near Villiers stop. Very nice food and friendly staff. Thanks for the apartment and looking forward to a return trip.

John & Betsey – MA, USA
3 December 2008

We had had a very enjoyable visit to Paris. The apartment was comfortable and in a convenient location. We enjoyed the restaurants you recommend. It was nice to be in a place where everything worked! You might want to put in your book what to do when a fuse blows. We figured it out. Until we visit Paris again.

Antonio, Vito, Guiliane & Alice – Italy
29 December 2008

Dear Preston and Gail,

Thanks a lot for your good guest reception. The apartment is very comfortable and quiet. We enjoyed visiting Paris, losing ourselves in its unknown corners. We hope to come back to Paris.

Caroline & Damian – Australia/New Zealand, now USA!
6 January 2009

Yet another lovely stay in Contemporary Chic. Winter in Paris is just as lovely as summer. Now much else to add to comments made back in June/July 2007. Please add Bistro l'Epicurean to your list of restaurants. Even Preston likes it! Once again we have given the kitchen a work out! We recommend PerfectlyParis to anyone visiting Paris – it really is the way to go.

Leila and Vicki
4 May 2009

Dear Rosie, Dear Gail,

My second trip to Paris in 6 weeks! I must make a habit of this, I think!

And I've graduated from an air bed at La Belle Epoque to a très comfortable bed at Contemporary Chic.

New culinary experience at "Le Zebre de Montmartre" next door to Pomponette which closes on Sundays. Excellent baked Camembert and delicious duck!

Can't wait to come back. Thanks so much!

Marwahas – India
Summer 2009

Thanks for a wonderful stay in the apartment. We really enjoyed it and hope to come again!

The Brindleys – Manchester, UK
August 2009

Apartment was great for our weekend – so much better than a cramped hotel room. A weekend just not enough to do Paris justice so we will have to return!

Thanks to Gail who tolerated my mixed arrangements and for Preston for showing us around.

Lauren and Adam – South Australia
30 August 2009

Hi Gail,

Thanks for a great stay in Paris! We loved having our own little place to call home here. Paris is such a lovely city and we'll be sad to leave! But we will come back one day for sure and hope to stay in a PerfectlyParis apartment.

P.S. Tip for sunset view and lights of city: head up to the top of the Arc de Triomphe. We have some great photos from up there!

Camille and Michael – Tampa/St. Petersburg, FL, USA
15 September 2009

Dear Gail-

We have had an amazing stay in Montmartre, in large part due to this lovely flat. I will definitely stay here again! Thank you for all the helpful tips and emails prior and during our trip.

Tip for future visitors: there is a lovely local coffee shop on rue des Dames on the other side of Place de Clichy roundabout. Several local shops and kind residents. Good espresso!

We would also recommend time for the weekend flea markets- Porte de Vances (14e, Porte de Vanves on metro line 13), Marché aux Puces de la Porte St Ouen (18e, metro Porte de Clignancourt) and Marché aux Fleurs (metro: Cité). And don't miss the arcades like Galerie Vivienne.

Mary and Jem
20 September 2009

Dear Rosie (and Gail!),

Thank you for a wonderful stay in this lovely apartment – we loved lying on the bed and listening to the rumble of the metro.

We did a lot of walking and especially enjoyed the Rodin Museum – a little gem of a place with a beautiful garden. Also the Eiffel, open bus tour, etc. etc.

The weather has been beautiful – bright skies and very warm. Thanks for this fantastic gift!

P.S. Beware the hot tap is very very hot!

Wendy and Dave – Connecticut, USA
28 September 2009

We had a great stay in this wonderful apartment for our long weekend in Paris. It was so nice to come back to the apartment than to a hotel room. PerfectlyParis is the way to go. We hope to return again next year. Thank you.

Kathy A – Indiana, USA
12 October 2009

Merci à vous for a wonderful home base for my first week in Paris. This was a perfect vantage point, especially with the Fête de la Vendange last weekend. I am so that I found your website and booked with you as it has been the smoothest part of my adventure!

Lewis, Ronda, Natasha and Alexander – Utah, USA
28 October 2009

Thank you for a wonderful place to stay in a magical city!

Malcolm Green
29 October 2009

Avoid ordering a drink outside at the corner bar “Le Palmier”. 3 drinks come to around 33.20E Could not find switch for towel rail. Great location – we had a good stay.
